

U.S. ARMY
RDECOM

ARL International Programs

open
campus

S&T Campaign: Mechanisms International Programs

AnnMarie Martin 410-278-9106
Hobbie Negaran 301-394-3557
Kim Nguyen 301-394-3597
Jason Craley 410-306-1275
International@arl.army.mil

International Agreements: Exchange Information/Material/Equipment/Personnel from Government to Government

Data Exchange Annex (DEAs) :

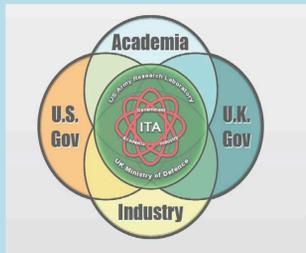

- Exchange of information only
- No laboratory material or equipment
- For Evaluation Purposes Only

Project Agreements/Arrangements (PAs):

- It's a partnership - joint commitment
- Technology Base projects
- Joint Ownership of Intellectual Property Rights
- Collaborative program

International Technology Alliance (ITA) in Network Information Science:

- US/UK Consortium consists of government, academia and industry
- Interdisciplinary fundamental research

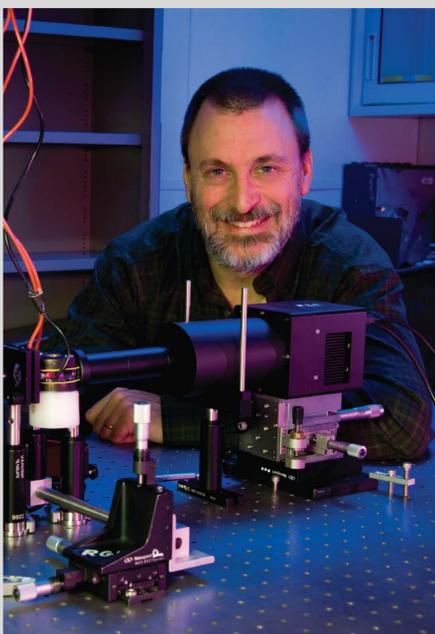

Foreign Non-Government CRADA:

Engage in collaborative efforts with foreign Academia and Industry partners

Exchange of Scientists and Engineers (ESEP) Program:

- 17 MOUs in place with international partners
- Allow for the assignment of an international S&E to a DOD Lab or U.S. S&E to international Military research facility

Foreign Comparative Testing (FCT) Program:

- Test and evaluate Non-Developmental Items (NDI) and Commercial Off-The-Shelf (COTS) technologies from foreign allies
- Satisfy Defense requirements quickly and economically

Coalition Warfare Program (CWP):

- Transitions U.S. programs into coalition solutions for U.S. warfighter
- Influence coalition interoperability in major programs
- Enable access to leading-edge global technology
- Address COCOM requirements of combined operations early in a program's development cycle